Chapter 1 by Orishabiyi Ashante

I followed Jackson into the mine to find some gold, I was still filled with fear after our last encounter with a creeper. It scared the hell out of me but we still had to focus on the task at hand. "I see it" Jackson said as we got our pickaxe's ready to collect as much gold as we needed, just then I heard a faint scream coming from inside the walls of the cave but I paid it no mind. We gathered the gold and headed for the exit, I looked behind me in shock Jackson had slipped and broken both of his feet, I carried him out of the mine but to no avail he had been bleeding out heavily on our way back up. I bandaged his legs up as best as I could and laid him on the bed, I put the gold in our chest and went to bed thinking how would I be able to help him, before I closed my eyes I heard him say something about a person called Herobrine cursing him, but I paid him no attention as I fell asleep.
